

FACTS! Conference
30 March 2022

Feeding UA through international cooperation:
from EUGO to GenerACTOR

Claudio Bordi & Franco La Torre, Risorse per Roma

FACTS! Conference

2012 – 2013

European programme LLP (Multilateral Grundtvig).

Partners: Rome, Marseille, Barcelona, Potsdam and Plymouth.

Learn, compare, disseminate and enhance the practice of urban gardens: intergenerational and intercultural dialogue, education for sustainable development and vocational training.

The first steps

FACTS! Conference

2013 – 2016

European programme ENPI.

Partners: Royal Botanic Garden of Amman, Roma Capitale, Metropolitan Area of Barcelona and Mahdia.

Improvement of management models for urban green/agricultural areas, regeneration of abandoned and degraded areas, social inclusion of disadvantaged people, promotion of sustainable development and urban resilience.

The experiences of Parco Ort9 by Vivere in... and the urban garden of Insieme per l'Aniene originated from this project.

Lets' start by doing and networking

FACTS! Conference

2014 – 2015

European programme LLP (Transfer of Innovation).

Partners: Marseille, Bristol, Berlin, Rome and Vienna.

Development of a European model of the first training course for garden + organiser = gardeniser.

Building a professional profile

FACTS! Conference

2017

The European programme URBACT recognises Rome as a Good Practice city for its participatory model of bottom-up governance of the urban gardens phenomenon, underlining its character as a resilient city.

Becoming a Good Practice City

FACTS! Conference

2017 – 2020

European programme Erasmus+ (KA2 VET).

Partners: Pau, Bristol, Kassel, Rome and Crete.

Systemization of the Gardeniser Pro training course, through the European ECVET credit system, internship in community gardens and online system for obtaining the Gardeniser license.

Strengthening a new profession

FACTS! Conference

2018 – 2020

European programme Urbact.

Partners: Loures, Caen, Krakow, A Coruña, Vilnius and Thessaloniki .

Transfer of the good practice of the city of Rome on the management of community urban gardens:
governance, capacity building and training

Sharing practices

FACTS! Conference

2020 – 2022

European programme Erasmus+ (Adult Education).

Partners: Wien, Krakow, Vejle, Lund, Bristol, Assat and Rome.

Exchange of good practices among 56 members of community urban gardens to contribute to the online ToolBox on the platform www.gardeniser.eu

Exchanging practices and sharing expertise

FACTS! Conference

2020-2023

European programme Erasmus+ (Adult Education).

Partners: Italy, France, Belgium and the UK.

Development of a training course for Gardeniser Pro trainers, civil servants, Gardeniser Tec and Gardeniser Edu.

Training professionals

FACTS! Conference

2021 – 2022

European programme Urbact.

Partners: Algeciras, Split, Alexandroupolis and Carlow.

Transfer of innovation and practices of the community gardens of Rome: governance, capacity building and training access for municipal officers and civil society groups.

Broadening the practice transfer

FACTS! Conference

2021-2022

ca|o|eri

European tender IMCAP.

Partners: Vicenza, Milan, Rome, Mesagne and Palermo.

Dissemination and awareness raising activities to children, adolescents and adults on the impact of the Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) on the daily life of citizens and the environment.

What's CAP?

FACTS! Conference

2021 – 2023

European programme Erasmus+ (School).

Partners: Third sector organisations, schools and universities from the UK, Italy, France and Belgium.

Innovative programme to support learning through digital access points to urban community gardens.

Digital learning for urban community

FACTS! Conference

2021 – 2023

European programme Horizon 2020.

Partners: Cities, Universities and Research centers of Italy, Belgium, Bulgaria, Denmark, the Netherlands and Germany.

Unlocking the potential of Urban Agriculture by achieving better networking, better knowledge, better dissemination, and better policies, through the creation of an Urban Agriculture Forum.

All together for unlocking the potential of urban agriculture!

FACTS! Conference

2021 – 2024

Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) Programme of Urban Innovation Exchange.

Partners: Rome, Lima, A Coruña, Tuxtla Gutierrez, Loures and São Paulo. The three coaching pathways will reunite in 2022.

Exchange programme of the cities of the IDB Cities Network (over 200) with cities in Europe, accredited for urban innovation issues.

Europe meets America

FACTS! Conference

2022 – 2025

European programme Europeaid.

Partners: Rome, Lazio Region and Barranquilla.

Exchanges, online webinars with experts, training courses for gardeners, training courses for Gardeniser Hub trainers, Gardeniser Pro, Gardeniser Tec and Gardeniser Edu.

Bottom-up construction of 4 urban community gardens by migrant communities from other Latin American countries.

Supporting Barranquilla

FACTS! Conference

The European Green Wave in Rome

Feeding UA through international cooperation

Risorse per Roma